

CREENTIALS

- I have a Ph.D in peacemaking. The title of my dissertation is: Women Peacemakers: The Hidden Side of Peacemaking.
- I have interviewed over fifty women through the world about how they make peace.
- I have been a Mediator and Trauma Therapist for over 35 years.
- I was a counselor at a camp for war-torn children in Croatia shortly after the Bosnian War.
- I facilitate a support group with those caring for a loved one with forms of dementia.
- I facilitate Restorative Justice Circles in my community.
- I was the Director of the Center for Conflict Resolution in Aspen, Colorado.
- I have taught over 500 children how to be peace place mediators.
- I have spoken to audiences large and small about the peacemakers I have interviewed and my work with war-torn children in the Bosnian war. (Schools, Rotary Clubs, Universities, Professional Conventions).
- After 9/11, I compiled and distributed a “Working Compendium of Non-violent Responses to 9/11.